How to end homelessness

We should build more clean spaces and townhomes for those that need it. And provide resources to help them gain steady income and housing.

Ending gun violence should involve more community policing and ~~outlets~~ positive outlets for the youth.